

The Victoria Foundation's Philanthropic Services team is here to help you.

The Victoria Foundation is here as a resource for your organization. We are your partner in building your organization's long-term capacity to achieve your mission and initiatives that foster social, cultural, and environmental impact.

The Foundation's knowledgeable staff are committed to providing service to you, including investment expertise, and gift and granting options for those who support your important work. We know you have stories to tell. We want to help showcase your vital programs as we work together to create positive change – from the arts, to housing, to youth and senior services and more.

The Foundation has a rich history of engagement with registered charities in the Greater Victoria region, and across Canada. Please do not hesitate to contact us directly at 250.381.5532 or by email. For more information visit our website at www.victoriafoundation.bc.ca
